SPARKING AN INTEREST IN SCIENCE

Lifelong learning and STEM education is a key component of Whitney Laboratory’s mission. Whitney Laboratory provides education programs including The Traveling Marine Zoo (K-3rd Grade), Day at the Whitney Lab (4-6th Grade) and Youth Summer Camps. In a hands-on setting, marine animals like these introduce students to marine biology by exploring how the animals breathe, find and eat food, protect themselves and generally survive in their environment.